EXPLORATION IS IN EVERYONE'S DNA

EXPLORATION TO MARS

We know more about the surface of Mars than our Deep blue seas

LOSS OF SPECIES

We are losing species and their habitats at an astonishing pace- science can help save them

BLUE ECONOMY

Australia is bringing aquaculture and renewable energy sectors together to address the challenges of offshore food and energy production.

WE ARE HARD WIRED TO BE CURIOUS- WE ARE ALL BORN SCIENTIST

This project aims to encourage an interest in science and STEM among our younger people to become fascinated by our planet's oceans, which cover two-thirds of its surface and help control its weather systems and the make-up of the atmosphere.
